Evanced to Provide Powerful New Staff Scheduling Software Solution

Indianapolis, IN – September 15, 2009 – Evanced Solutions has partnered with WebClarity Solutions, based in Ontario, Canada, to provide PeopleWhere Staff Scheduling developed exclusively for libraries.

PeopleWhere Staff Scheduling is a powerful, easy-to-use software solution that allows libraries to focus on fulfilling staff scheduling needs and managing time-off requests, even letting staff submit their requests for approval first. It also identifies where personnel are located in addition to tracking their skills and knowledge assets.

“While there are staff scheduling products in the broader technology market, there are none that are truly designed for libraries and for their unique staffing needs,” said Phil Smith, CEO of WebClarity Software. “PeopleWhere Staff Scheduling responds to the challenges libraries face managing full-time and part-time staff. It meets an important technology need for libraries as manual processes are time consuming and limiting, especially in this Internet-age.”

When Evanced Solutions decided to partner with WebClarity Solutions to bring PeopleWhere Staff Scheduling to libraries in the U.S., they had the goal of responding to the needs of their customers. “Adding PeopleWhere to our product offerings ties into Evanced’s mission – helping libraries save money, be more efficient, and better meet their users’ needs,” said co-founder and CSO of Evanced Rob Cullin. “This is an essential solution for libraries in a time where staff is at a premium, budgets are slim, and libraries strive to do more with less. We are pleased to offer this enhanced level of service through our friends at WebClarity.”
